COUNCIL MEETING

HELD FRIDAY EVENING AND BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

SIDEWALK CAMPAIGN

To Be Pushed by the Council—Adjourned Meeting to Be Held Next Friday Evening.

Several matters were taken up by the board of aldermen at the council meeting held Friday evening. Several sidewalk petitions were granted and ordinances ordered drawn for them. The council intends to push the building of the sidewalks in the city.

One petition granted for a sidewalk was on the east side of Dewey street, between Jenkins and Cooper, two blocks in length. On motion of Louis Gram, another block was added to this petition, making it from Jenkins to Edward street. Another sidewalk ordered built and ordinance drawn for it was on the west side of Walnut street, between Fourth and Fifth.

A dangerous sidewalk that has been causing the council some little trouble and which was ordered condemned at last night's meeting was that on East Third street, on the H. Murray place. A number of property owners of that section of town appeared before the meeting last night and asked that the board take some action on the matter, as the sidewalk was in bad condition and very dangerous. The board will take the matter up at once. The board ordered that a half car load of cement be purchased through one of the local dealers for street crossing and other city work that will be done throughout the year. They will save about $65 by buying it this way. The city used over a car load of cement last year in its work of improving crossings and building new ones over the city.

The committee to investigate the condition of the Oak Hill cemetery, reported that the plat of the cemetery should be made over and that the city should see to it that the condition of the roads leading from town or to it are improved. City Engineer Flint was ordered to draw a new plat of the cemetery by the board.

One very good suggestion made at last night's meeting by Henry Hudson was that Mayor Robey should make a list of recommendations at every meeting night, suggesting what is needed in the way of improvements, and along other lines, and that the mayor or clerk should inform the members of the board at the regular meeting of the council every month of the condition of the finances of the city.

The city election is to be held on April 4, and the terms of the following aldermen will be out then:

From the First ward, Henry Foster. From the Second ward, Henry Hudson.

From the Third ward, John Signs. From the Fourth ward, Louis Gram. The board will meet next Friday evening when several ordinances for condemning and building new sidewalks will come up for action. Another matter that will probably be taken up is that of appointing judges and clerks for the city election.

NEW ENGLISH TEACHER SECURED AT NORMAL

Prof. H. P. Swinehart, principal of the high school of Wellston, O., has accepted a position as English teacher in the Normal school to fill the place of Miss Theodosia Raines, who will be absent for some time. President Taylor received word from Prof. Swinehart that he will be here Tuesday.

The Normal school now will add the department of German and Prof. Swinehart will be in charge of it. The new teacher is well recommended and has a large experience, and will no doubt give strength to the department.

GAVE FINE PROGRAM

THE MOTHERS' CIRCLE MEETING AT HIGH SCHOOL.

SPEECHES AND MUSIC

The New Pictures and Manual Training Exhibits Were Praised by the Large Crowd.

The Mothers' Circle meeting at the high school auditorium Friday afternoon to meet the parents and teachers of the Maryville school district was largely attended and the appreciation shown the program presented cannot fail of the desired result—a closer and more intimate relation between teachers and parents and their children.

Mrs. Eugene Ogden, president of the Mothers' Circle, presided. After the singing of "America," Superintendent Hawkins, who is in hearty sympathy with the work of the Mothers' Circle, welcomed all and briefly stated a few of the needs of the new high school—apparatus for play grounds and the furnishing of the rest rooms for the needs of the students should sickness of accident occur, also suggesting the Red Cross emergency equipment.

All of the speeches were limited to five minutes each, with the exception of those by Mrs. F. M. Martin and Mrs. Sheldon, which are given in full in this issue of The Democrat-Forum.

After a beautifully rendered vocal trio by Miss Verna Felter, Miss Eva Montgomery and Miss Lillian Lindholm, Mrs. E. G. Leake spoke of the "Ideal Teacher," a subject, she said, which would take hours to properly develop. She said, among other things, that she must be loyal, obedient to those over her, a splendid example in all things, even to matters of dress, to those under her, physically strong, broad in mental endowments and in high repute morally. Sympathy must be her strongest point, and she must believe every child wants to do right and help him to do it; must forgive and believe in him always. Even some parents, she said, failed to get a good point of view of their children.

Miss Ada Albert's response was a plea for the confidence of the parents in the teacher, because they are conscientiously working with the children. She also brought out the fact in a way that met applause, that if the ward schools were equipped with swings and teeters and other playthings, children would not be sick and need a rest room when they got to the high school. She said the ward schools had two sanitary drinking fountains, and that is all they have. The new high school needs nothing, in comparison, she said. Miss Albert was interrupted by applause several times in her talk for the little ones.

Miss Varner's talk was a response to Mrs. Sheldon's paper on "What We Want Our Children to Be." She said the true teacher endeavored to lead the boys and girls toward the highest possible manhood and womanhood, which embraces four elements—truth, courage, honesty, purity—and to womanhood is added modesty. These qualities are absolute, and without them true manhood and womanhood cannot be attained. The standard for these absolute qualities is a world-wide standard made by the best thinking men and women of the world. He who follows them will be at home among the best thinking men and women anywhere and everywhere in the world.

Mrs. F. P. Robinson followed with two beautiful solos, and was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mildred Robinson.

Professor Stagner closed with some very appropriate congratulatory remarks that were well received.

At the close of the program a very enjoyable time was spent by all in visiting the various rooms, where they were received by the teachers. The display of class work in each department was indeed fine, and the ink and pencil drawings and sketches in colors were surprisingly artistic and the true artistic touch and spirit was seen in many pieces of work of students in the grades.

The new collection of pictures recently purchased by the school board from the Elson Art company in Chicago, and framed in quarter sawed oak frames by the students under the direction of Professor Horton, were the center of attraction. The pictures cost $400 and are reproductions of paintings of the great artists.

In the domestic science rooms, under the direction of Miss Elsie Liggett, the instructor, the students in this department served the visitors with the most appetizing potato soup and wafers in attractive style.

The display in the manual training department was very satisfactory to the visitors, and although all the pieces on exhibition were in woodwork, that does not embrace all that is included in manual training, but the present equipment for carrying on this new department in our school will not permit of further study, and even the study in woodwork is limited for lack of equipment.

Some who have knowledge of manual training and are in touch with that carried on in old well equipped schools were enthusiastic in their praise of Friday's display. Professor Horton, the instructor, knows his work well and is a fine teacher. He is a young teacher of few words, but what he says brings out the best effort of his students, the result of understanding what is expected and required of them.

All the pieces of work shown Friday were in oak, walnut and soft wood, and were as follows, with the names of the makers:

Library table and two-winged screen, George Wamsley.
Walnut table, Paul Denny.
Mission chair finished in black, Fred Hutchison.

Hall seat and art lamp, Fleming Carpenter.

Porch swing, two piano benches, hall rack, three tabourettes, mirror stand and frame, art lamp, book rack, coal box of own design, and a writing desk outfit carved from walnut, consisting of inkstand, letter holder, paper knife and envelope opener, by Fred Vandersloot.

Hall tree, flower stand, two foot stools and art lamp, Harold Staples.
Magazine stand, ironing board and two plate racks, John McDougal.

Hall tree and magazine stand, Ed Gorman.

Magazine stand and foot stool, Horace Campbell.

Magazine stand, towel rack, art lamp and high school joining work, Ernest Yeamans.

Writing desk and magazine stand, Goodson Lytle.

Plate rack, Richard Kuchs.

Plate rack, Cecil Fisher.

Magazine rack, foot stool, tabourette and whisk broom holder, Elizabeth Cook.

Porch swing, Paul Wilson.

Porch swing and hat rack, Edward Condon.

Table of own design, Chastain Harrel.

Magazine rack, Ray Foland.

Foot stool, Ova Goff.

Porch swing, coffee urn rest and flower pot rest, Eleanor Smith.

Plate rack, tabourette and foot stool, Edith Wallace.

Mission lamp, Neva Aiky.

Art lamp, Jesse Strader.

Coat rack and hall seat, Ralph Jameson.

A framed picture in plaster paris or low relief work was the work of Professor Horton. This sort of work is included in clay modelling, also bent iron, two pieces of the latter being shown.

MILITIA PAY BILL HAS PASSED THE HOUSE

Captain E. S. Cook received word this morning that the militia pay bill had passed the house and that it was practically assured that it would pass the senate.

This will mean much to the National Guard throughout the country, and the local company will be much benefited. The pay bill provides and assures one-fourth pay to all the guardsmen. This will enable the enlisted men to draw about $1 for each drill night, and corporals will draw considerably more in proportion to their rank. The commissioned officers of F company will draw from $35 to $50 per month. The government has been making unusual efforts to take care of the National Guard lately. The local company has been sent forty-five steel lockers and complete equipment in every detail is assured. The inspector who was here in February condemned the armory on the east side of the square for government purposes, and new quarters have been leased over the Tribune. United States inspections will be a frequent thing now, and the next inspection will be by Captain John Heavy of the Eleventh Infantry, now stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming. Captain Heavy will inspect Company F at the new quarters on March 16th.

SO SAYS CONGRESSMAN BOOHER IN A TELEGRAM.

$35,000 FOR MARYVILLE

Government Building—Work Will Probably Start About June 1 This Year.

Mayor Arthur S. Robey received the following telegram from Congressman Charles F. Booher from Washington, Saturday afternoon:

"Bill appropriating $35,000 for Maryville government building is now part of the law."

This means that an appropriation of $35,000 has been made for Maryville, and that it is to be used during this year on the public building.

Congressman Booher said some few weeks ago that it was thought that work would start June 1 on getting the ground in shape and getting ready for the building.

TO SPEAK BEFORE MISSION RALLY BANQUET

Rev. Dr. J. S. Ford, pastor of the First M. E. church, left Saturday afternoon for St. Joseph, where he will attend the annual fellowship and missionary rally. Rev. Ford will deliver an address at the banquet to be held Saturday evening.

On Sunday Rev. Ford will occupy the pulpit of the Oakland Park Methodist church in the morning, and in the evening he will preach at Grace church in South St. Joseph.

REFUSE TO GRANT DIVORCE IN CASE

"OUR CHILDREN THEM TO BE"—B

A mother lay upon her bed, pale and wan. From her face shone the radiance that comes to those who have won a hard way back from the gates of death. By her side lay a tiny bundle for whose sake she had made the long journey. Gently she turned and raised herself, that she might see the precious wee face more clearly. And as she gazed with more love and longing, her whole soul was breathed forth in a trembling prayer: "O thou Creator, who hast designed to share Thy wondrous power with us, and who art the loving Father of us all, teach me to know the needs of my child, now and through all the days to come."

The divine commission coming to Moses made him great. The divine commission coming to any human soul and receiving recognition infuses strength to execute it. To every parent, with the birth of a child comes this command: "Take this child and train it for me."

When through the mystery of conception and birth God entrusts a human soul to any man and woman, this entrusting is the highest calling to train the soul aright. In my mind stands an ideal of every human life, and this ideal is the highest possible development of all its faculties, physically, mentally, morally and spiritually. To realize this we must be co-workers with God in a very exalted sense. We, as mothers, should realize more fully a sense of solemn responsibility, as well as a glad privilege which the coming of each child means. Neglected childhood, whether it comes through frivolity or fashion, or through the pressure of business, or from over-burdening care is pitiful and calls for the tenderest solicitude from the more thoughtful and more fortunate.

God's interest in children is shown throughout the Bible, and they are spoken of as His direct gift.

NORMAL WON OVER THE PIRATES FRIDAY

The consolation series of basket ball games between the Normal and Pirate fives' was started Friday night in the Normal gymnasium. The Normal team was consoled to the extent of a 37 to 26 point victory over their opponents. In the curtain raiser between the Business college and Whirlwind (high school) teams the former won by 8 points, the score being 29 to 21.

The line-up of the Normal and Pirate teams was not the same as it has been before. Gault of the Normals has quit school and is not now on the team. His place was taken by Criss. Perrin played with the Normals and his place on the Pirate team was taken by Vandersloot of the high school. Neither team played with its usual form, as they have not played any games and have not practiced for some time. The game was a good one, however, and the next two games of the series promise to be as fast and class as any that were played in the tournament. Perrin and Vandersloot ran off with the honors in last night's game. Criss took his new position at guard and did exceedingly well in holding down Bent, the Pirates' fast forward. The line-up:

Normal—Mitchell and Perrin, forwards; Neff, center; Criss and McDougal, guards.

Pirates—Bent and Vandersloot, forwards; Hogan, center; Taylor and Carpenter, guards.

Baskets—Mitchell 4, Perrin 9, Neff 2, Bent 3, Vandersloot 7.

Free throws—Perrin 7, Bent 4, Vandersloot.

One point awarded the Pirates on a foul.

Referee—Young.

Halves—Twenty minutes.

Business College—Rhodes and Taylor, forwards; Smith, center; Darling and Holmes, guards.

Whirlwinds—Strader and Price, forwards; Lyle, center; Denny and Yeaman, guards.

Baskets—Rhodes 4, Taylor 8, Darling 2, Strader 3, Price 6.

Free throws—Rhodes, Denny 2.

One point awarded Whirlwinds on a foul.

Referee—Young.

S. Jackson, Jr., Clerk.

Not once in history are we every day and always, Christ sets the little child in the midst of us as the truest reminder of Himself, teaching us the secret of happiness and leading us into the kingdom by the way of humility, love and tenderness.

Mothers, let us learn a sense of deep appreciation for the dear children God has given us. All too soon will they grow up and go out into the busy world to fill the places we now occupy.

Every mother has an ideal character in view for her child. Every true mother works conscientiously toward the development of that character.

Most mothers are so busy with their home cares, the children's clothes and the thousand and one other things that fall to a mother's lot that often there is no time for the special training of the little ones, and the small opportunities, which mean so much in training the children and fitting them to be what we would have them to be, are overlooked under the stress of what we think more pressing duties. The unconscious influence, example, chance word or expression—these all sink into the plastic mind of the child, to be often indelibly impressed, and may affect his whole after life.

Mothers do not realize all their opportunities, for they come and go so quickly. She is so busy about other things that she lets many golden opportunities pass by unnoticed.

If mothers could be constantly on the watch to implant the impressions she desires made on her child's mind, it would be a great step toward the realization of that ideal character he has in mind for her child, and keep it constantly before her.

In laying the foundation for the character of our children we should teach them industry, sobriety, 1 a

THE WORK OF THE ORGANIZATION AND WHAT IT MEANS AND IS DOING

Fourteen years ago this month Mrs. Theodore W. Birney, a Georgia woman, called together the mothers of the nation to study the child, to learn more of his development, to understand the influences and environment that would develop his highest possibilities. Mothers from every part of the land were touched by the message, and with heart hunger for the light which would bring strength and power to their motherhood, they responded to the call. Women were working then in various organizations, but child study to promote child welfare by the mothers of the children of America was first organized in Washington in 1897.

To work for dependent children, for orphans and neglected little ones was not new; to realize that the foundation of child welfare depends on each mother in each home of the land, knowing how to be a good mother, and that without an understanding of child nature she cannot do her work to the best advantage, was new. To formulate plans by which to reach every mother in every home was the task of the national congress of mothers.

Mothers organized then, and consecrated themselves under divine guidance, to work together, to study together, to gain greater wisdom as to the unfolding of child life, greater ability to lead it wisely, greater power to guard in home and school and state the little ones whom God has entrusted to our care, to train for life here and in the world beyond.

Recognizing that each is one of God's little ones, that each has the right to the protection and guidance of a wise loving mother, recognizing that instinct does not give wisdom and knowledge; that child nature is a science worthy of deep study, the national congress of mothers today, with its branches in every state and in many other lands, embraces mothers

THE WORK OF THE ORGANIZATION

Is there a place for mothers, specialists in the greatest of all fields, to unite in an international movement
to study and promote a wiser motherhood? Who would venture to put a stumbling block in the path of an organization consecrated to such a mission? Who would dare say that its work is of such slight importance that it is not worthy of a national congress for its special work? Who would "offend one of these little ones" by imperiling in any way the progress of a work of such vital moment, and of such high and holy purpose.

When a great work is to be done,
God puts it into the heart of one of His children to give it to the children of earth. Into Mrs. Birney's heart was put the desire to awaken mothers to a full appreciation of their opportunities to win for childhood the privilege of developing its highest possibilities.

The national congress of mothers
celebrates founder's day on February 17th. God has called our founder to her home above. Her last thoughts were to her sister congress leaders to carry forward the work for mothers,
home and children. "Whether here
or there, I will be with you in spirit,"
she said to your president as her parting words.

As torch bearers are the women who join the ranks and lend their aid and influence to the cause, leading the way toward the goal. The goal is education for motherhood for every woman, education in the science of child nature, education in home-making, prevention of infant mortality, disease and crime will be the result.

Many of you never knew the gentle-strong, noble woman who gave her heart and life to the cause of childhood and a nobler motherhood.
She gave to the world in organization the belief that child nature is a science for mothers and to study; because the influence of this movement has made itself felt in the uttermost parts of the world because organizations which she gave it a thought before have its influence and are following in the footsteps of the congress, it is just to her and helpful to us to pause at this anniversary and consider how we can further its great purpose of reaching every home, of providing home education for every home-maker, of strengthening the hands of those who have the great responsibility of leading the national congress of mothers in state and nation. Within the last two years the government of Mexico,
Cuba, Costa Rica, Argentine Republic,
Bolivia and Italy have all responded to the plea of the congress to organize the motherhood of their countries
to study and promote child welfare.

April 25th to May 2nd, 1911, the second international congress on child welfare will be held in Washington, D. C., its foundation, child study for child welfare.

Each year deepens the sense that it is the most vital work in the world,
that the education that is most worthwhile is that which will shape child life in the formative years, so that health and high ideals will be the heritage of every child.

To the consummation of this end
may we be led by Him whose spirit
of love and service is our guide.

WHAT WE WISH OUR CHILDREN TO BE

esty, educate them to the best of our ability, and teach them from the craddle that "Christ is all in all."

The education of the soul is the primary and the most important of all things.

We dream many bright dreams for our children, but we must not forget that all good things come from continuous, earnest, thoughtful striving;
of willingness to pay a fair price for what is wanted. Let us then train up our children in the way they should go, and when they are old they will not depart from it.

Dear fingers, so gentle and strong;
Their touch on my forehead yet lin-

Like echoes of heavenly song.
And I thought as I saw her still

Calm features and wavy white hair,
My mother, you taught me life's duty,
God help me to honor your care.

The years come and go. They have

But never a truth she taught me

Washington, March 4.—The suit
filed at Cleveland against the General Electric company is the opening gun in the government's fight against the so called electrical trust. Officials of the department of justice declare that their investigations of the combination have disclosed a situation which overshadows any other anti-trust prosecution the government has ever undertaken, not excepting the case against the Standard Oil company.

Attorney General Wickersham is sued a statement of the suit against the so called electrical trust, in which he intimated that the defendants would cease the practices to which the government objects without a great deal of opposition.

"The defendants have already indicated a disposition to conform to the requirements of the government," said he, "and the department hopes that a dissolution of the combination will be effected without long litigation."

Would Dissolve Combine.

The petition asks that the National Electric Lamp company be enjoined
from voting the stock of or receiving any dividends from the thirty odd corporations alleged to have been acquired and controlled by it; that the other companies be enjoined from paying dividends to the National Electric Lamp company; that the General Electric company, which, the petition says,
controls the holding company, be enjoined from using its stock in that company; that existing agreements between the companies be voided and that they be forbidden to exercise control of foreign patents or use the same to suppress competition.

Monopolily Almost Complete.

The petition charges that there exists agreements with the Westinghouse company and others to sell lamps at prices dictated by the combination. It further alleges that the defendant has bought up German patents on filament lamps and will not sell the German products unless the buyers agree to buy also the carbon filament lamps; and that the price of lamps sold by the alleged trust to United States customers is 17 cents, while the same are sold abroad for 10 cents.

The petition states that 97 per cent of 80,000,000 lamps sold yearly for $18,000,000 are sold by the combination. The defendants include not only the alleged members of the combination, but supply companies and other said to be engaged in furthering the interests of the combination.

FOR MENTAL ANGUISH

Missouri Senate Passes Bill to Allow Damages.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 4.—The senate of the Missouri legislature passed a bill allowing damages amounting to $1,500 for mental anguish over the failure of telegraph companies to deliver telegrams promptly.

The house constitutional-amendment committee reported without recommendation the bill submitting to a vote of the people a bond issue of $5, 000,000 for a new capitol. One of the amendments provides for the erection of the building at Jefferson City and the other leaves the location to the next legislature.

Senator White introduced in the senate an amendment for a $3,000,000 bond issue to be submitted to the next legislature.

A bill to permit six-round boxing matches with six-ounce gloves before organized clubs under state protection was reported favorably to the house.

Adverse reports were made on the county and precinct local option bills
and attempts to place them on the calendar were made.

BUSTILLOS IS EXECUTED

Orozco Places Responsibility for Juarez
Fiasco Upon Minor Chief.

Mexico City, March 4.—The responsibility for permitting General Navarro to arrive at Ciudad Juarez has been placed by the rebels upon "Captain" Bustillos, a minor chief, who has paid for his alleged negligence or incompetency with his life, according to a special from Torreón. He is said to have been executed by order of Orozco.

When Orozco left the vicinity of Guerrero his plan was for Bustillos to keep Navarro occupied until Orozco could reach Juarez, and to prevent, at any cost, the federal leader from returning to Chihuahua. Bustillos failed, whereupon Orozco ordered his execution, which was accomplished in Ocampo by six men sent by Orozco.

seph M. Huston of Philadelphia, architect of the Pennsylvania state capitol.

WALLING UNDER CROSS FIRE

Miss Grunspan's Lawyer Merciless in Excoriating of Defendant.

New York, March 4.—William English Walling's excursion into Russia with Anna Berthe Grunspan, when she traveled as his wife on falsely attested passports, is fixed in the young social-ist's mind as "Seven Days," he swore under an excoriating cross examination in his defense of Miss Grunspan's suit for $100,000 breach of promise.

"Call it seven days—that's how I remember it. It was a hysterical jaunt made when I was passionately fond of her," he exclaimed, peevishly, under Miss Grunspan's lawyer's persistent prod. "In seven days almost everything happened between us and then it all ended."

Walling's love letters to Miss Grun-span were reread. He winced, grew
"puns" and at other times remarked
restless, called terms of endearment
that he "was joking."

Anna Strunsky Walling, his wife, sat motionless as a statue during his merciless examination. Her eyes were open and she stared directly into his flushed face.

TWENTY-ONE PERSONS TRAMPLED TO DEATH

Starving Chinese Fight to Get Food From Missionaries.

Hankow, China, March 4.—Twenty-one persons were trampled to death at Shayank, Huapeh province, when a horde of starving Chinese fought for the food which missionaries were attempting to distribute. A great many others were injured.

The work of relief is attended with some peril to those who have taken supplies in the famine districts, as the natives in many instances are mad
with deprivations.

A considerable amount of foodstuff was received by the missionaries, who immediately planned a systematic distribution. Their work was hardly begun when thousands of desperate men, women and children who had learned that there was a chance of their hunger being half satisfied
swooped down on the supply depot.
An uncontrollable riot followed. Each fought for himself and the weaker went down and were ruthlessly trampled. The fighting continued as long as there appeared to be anything to fight for. Missionaries were helpless.

"SIGN TALK" AT FUNERAL

Service at Kansas City Conducted in Deaf Mute Language.

Kansas City, March 4.—A funeral in sign language was held here when the Rev. J. H. Cloud, a deaf mute minister from St. Louis, preached the service over the body of Charles L. Minor, a deaf mute. Mrs. Minor, who is also unable to hear or talk, made the arrangements for the benefit of a large number of friends similarly afflicted.
As the Rev. Mr. Cloud went through the service it was translated and repeated to those in the audience who could hear by the Rev. C. C. McGinley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here.

Indict Promoters of Interurban.

Kansas City, March 4.—Ernest D.
Martin, formerly a member of the Missouri state senate, and Frank C. Avery were indicted by the federal grand jury here on a charge of using the mails to defraud. The alleged fraud was in connection with the promotion of an electric railroad in 1909 to connect Kansas City with St. Joseph.
Martin was arrested and released on $5,000 bond. Avery was arrested in San Francisco, Feb. 20, and released
on bond.

Representative Craig and President Taylor have been working to get an additional appropriation for the salary fund of the Northwest Normal of $2,000, and if it should be allowed it will be $72,000 for the salary fund of this institution. Already $70,000 has been given for this fund.

Both Mr. Craig and Dr. Taylor feel hopeful that they will be able to secure this additional appropriation. In a telegram from Mr. Craig at Jefferson City to Dr. Taylor, Mr. Craig said:

"Send me strong petition addressed to Senator Lane for the $2,000 additional salary signed by every member of the faculty, and make it urgent and try to get it to me by Tuesday morning. They have agreed to hold off that long."

Known Contractor, Has to Say
of Kissimmee, Florida.

Mr. James Sage, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sage of this city, accompanied Mr. Bailey and invested in land and remained there. Mr. Bailey had previously invested in land, and on this trip he purchased more land in Florida. Mr. Bailey said: "I think I must have rode fully seventy miles over the prairie, looking over the land of the Hunter Land company, and a nicer body of land would be hard to find, and I cannot see that this company has misrepresented things in any way. The climate in this part of the state is about as near perfect as any one could wish for. This company is represented in Maryville by Allen
Brothers, who will be glad to explain

CRANE'S

Twenty Facts

Why you should buy land in Lupton Meadows.

Can You Beat Them?

No. 1—Irrigated land values in the famous Greeley district, world famed for potatoes, sugar beets, alfalfa, stock feeding and fruit, are rapidly increasing.

No. 2—The Lupton Meadows land is the cream of the Greeley district and is only twenty-nine miles from Denver, the greatest market in the West, and in a thickly settled section. You are in no sense a pioneer.

No. 3—Every tract is within three miles of a railroad shipping point, railroad facilities are of the very best, with suburban passenger and express service to Denver.

No. 4—Most fertile soil on earth, no clearing necessary, easily worked, with high price markets at your door.

No. 5—The ownership of a perpetual fully paid up water right goes with every acre.

No. 6—Your water rights are among the oldest in Colorado, dating back to 1859. There is the greatest abundance of water for all kinds of crops.

No. 7—Six beet sugar factories within forty miles of Lupton Meadows, and the sugar company pays the freight on your beets.

No. 8—Weld county, in which the Lupton Meadows land is located, has no bonded indebtedness.

No. 9—The climate is the best on earth. Winters are short and mild. No oppressive heat in summer. Elevation a mile above sea level. This dry climate prevents malaria and cures consumption, hay fever, asthma, etc.

No. 10—Pure drinking water from fifteen to eighteen feet, and artesian water from 400 to 600 feet.

No. 11—This irrigated land will earn as much in one year as a rain belt farm will earn in three years. You get your "rain" when and where you want it.

No. 12—The irrigation farmers of Northern Colorado earn more per acre than any other farmers on earth. The United States reports on agriculture show this.

No. 13—Schools, churches, rural delivery and telephone service everywhere. State University, State Normal School, State School of Mines and State Agricultural College within forty miles, and Denver (Pop. 215,000) only twenty-nine miles distant, with every class of school and church.

No. 14—There is not enough irrigated land to supply one farmer in 350. Get yours while you have the chance.

No. 15—You will live longer, work less and earn more in Colorado than anywhere else in the world. The unusual conditions here make it possible.

No. 16—You are dealing with a railroad land company. We are after tonnage for our railroad. This insures absolute fair dealing, as the company is in the business to stay, and your success is our success.

No. 17—Coal can be obtained at the mines near by, from $1.50 to $2.50 per ton.

No. 18—Colorado roads are the best in the country; never too muddy for heavy loads.

No. 19—Our prices are lower than those on adjoining land. We want tonnage for our railroad, the Denver, Laramie & Northwestern.

No. 20—For honesty and fair dealing we refer you to any bank or trust company in Denver.

IT ISN'T WHAT YOU PAY FOR LAND, BUT WHAT THE LAND PAYS YOU.

RECORD MADE BY CONGRESS

Story of Sessions Torn by Factional Strife and Bitterness.

MANY MEASURES ARE BLOCKED

Divisions of Majority Party Prevent Any Concerted Action in Either House—Failure of Reciprocity Will Force Taft to Call Extra Session.

Washington, March 4.—In the retrospect, the Sixty-first congress, which expired by constitutional limitation at noon today, appears to have been distinguished by three things: The revision of the tariff in the Payne-Aldrich bill, which was passed at an extra session in the summer of 1909, the large amount of important legislation, much of it upon the recommendation of President Taft, enacted at the regular session of 1909-10, and the exceedingly small product of the "short session" just closed.

The interval between the last two sessions was marked by the political upheaval registered at the general election last November, which changed a large Republican majority into a still larger Democratic majority in the house of representatives, cut the Republican majority in the senate almost to the vanishing point and incidentally effected striking changes in the senate personnel.

The failure of this session to enact much important legislation has resulted in the practical certainty that the new Sixty-second congress will be called almost immediately in extraordinary session, especially by reason of the strong desire of President Taft to secure action upon the pending reciprocity agreement with Canada, to the consummation of which the contracting parties pledged the utmost efforts of the two governments.

Majority Party Divided.

In strong contrast with the support which the Taft administration received from the Republican majority in the matter of legislation in the regular session of 1909-10 is the fact that at the present session the majority has been anything but united; the reciprocity agreement was passed in the house by the aid of a large portion of Democratic votes, while in the senate the rift in the majority between the regulars and the insurgents has been an important factor in its sidetracking and in the consequent summoning of the extra session.

To this division in the majority was largely due the most dramatic feature of the previous long session—the protracted and sensational conflict last spring which ended in material changes in the house rules, generally interpreted as "the overthrow of the speaker," and which, after a bitter fight lasting many hours and including one all-night struggle, stopped only just short of the actual unseating of Speaker Cannon. While the acrimony between the regulars and the insurgents neither began nor ended with the battle over the rules, that was its most conspicuous episode, and there has been little peace between the factions since in either house.

Bitterness in Senate.

In the senate the most sensational feature of this session was the unavailing effort, in which the insurgents were the most active, to unseat William Lorimer as junior senator from Illinois on the ground of alleged bribery in connection with his election by the legislature of that state in the spring of 1909.

Another important recent action of the senate was the defeat of the resolution embodying a proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States to provide for the direct election of senators by the people.

This resolution received more than a majority of the senate, but it needed a two-thirds vote and fell short by only four. Had the senate passed it the house almost certainly would have done so. The friends of this proposition entertain little doubt that it will pass the next congress and go to the states for ratification or defeat.

The output of this session in the way of general measures consists chiefly of the appropriation bills, and several of them have seemed to be in danger more than once in the tense situation of the last few days, when long hours passed away in filibustering on one side or the other.

Thousands of bills were introduced and thousands more came to the closing session as a heritage from the first and second sessions. In all there were between 35,000 and 45,000 measures before congress. The failure to enact many laws was not due to lack of real material.

March 15 was the date given at the White House as the time which President Taft in all probability would select for calling the extra session.

Suit to Recover Coal Lands.

Denver, March 4.—The government entered suit in the United States district court here against the Carbon Coal and Coke company, a subsidiary of the American Smelting and Refining company, and against the Exploration company, limited, a large British corporation, to recover coal lands in Colorado alleged to have been acquired fraudulently by means of dummy entries. The land consists of 1,280 acres at Cokedale, said to be valued at $5,000,000 or more.

FIRST FEW GRAY HAIRS

MAY BE POSTPONED.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as the heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by Koch Pharmacy.

Farmers Attention

You will need some implements this spring, and we are in a position to supply you better than ever, because all of our goods are brand new, right from the factory for 1911. We have Kingman, Oliver and Pattee goods. None better in the land. Pattee Cultivators, the New Departure line. We have this favorite Cultivator in six different styles. We let the farmer be the judge on these Cultivators. The Pattee Plow Company of Monmouth, Ill. (in the corn belt of the world), makes nothing but Cultivators, therefore doesn't it stand to reason that they would build better Cultivators than the factories that build everything from a double-shovel to an automobile? You never heard of any Pattee automobiles yet. When you do it will be an auto-cultivator. Come in and see for yourself.

Superior Grain Drills, best by test. Full line of Kingman good Gang Plows, Corn Planters, Etc.

Oliver Plows, gangs and sulkies. None better.

When you are in need of an implement and want the best, come and see, or take ours out and give it a trial and you be the judge.

of Large Tracts by Individuals or Corporations.

Washington, March 4.—Complete exoneration of the officers of the Philippine Islands government of all charges of irregularities or improprieties in connection with the administration, sales or leases of lands in the Philippines, yet, on the other hand, pointed criticisms of the inadequacy of the present laws to prevent monopolies in what are known as the "friar lands," are expressed in both the majority and minority reports of the house committee on insular affairs submitted to the house.

The charge made on the floor of the house a year ago by Representative Martin (Colo.) that the so-called sugar trust had acquired 55,000 acres of the "friar lands" led to an investigation of the entire question of the administration of public lands as well as "friar lands."

Both reports concur in the opinion that the organic act of 1902 in limiting individuals to forty acres and corporations to 2,500 acres in the amount of public land that may be acquired does not impose the same restrictions on the disposition of the "friar lands."

The majority report argues that as a practical expedient the "friar lands" should be disposed of in larger quantities to attract buyers, while the minority claim that the sale of the "friar lands" in large tracts may develop a system of absentee landlordism as obnoxious to the Filipinos as that of the friars, against whom they once rebelled. The latter also suggest that a friendly proceeding be begun in the courts by the officers of the Philippine government to determine the exact legal status of the "friar lands" with respect to public land regulations.

Alleged Sugar Trust Deal.

As to the acquisition by E. L. Poole of 55,000 acres of the "friar lands" on behalf of Horace Havemeyer, Charles J. Welch and Charles H. Senff, representatives, declare the house officials involved were not culpable, being guided by the best available interpretations of the law.

The majority members, however, deny that the land was obtained by the sugar trust, while the minority assert that if the sugar trust did not acquire it, "the next door neighbor to the sugar trust" did, and that there is apparently "a community of interest" evidencing a holding by one person of upwards of 55,000 acres of land.

The minority accepts the situation as unavoidable, but holds the incident up as a warning against "further exploitation of lands by American capitalists," and suggests that no more sales of large tracts of the "friar lands" be consummated pending the action of congress or the outcome of court proceedings that might be instituted by the Philippine officials.

MORE CORN IS SENT ABROAD

Exports for Month Exceed Those of Wheat for the First Time.

Washington, March 4.—During January the monthly exports of wheat from the United States for the first time were exceeded in quantity by the exports of corn, according to the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor. Decreased receipts of wheat at leading interior markets was smaller. Shipments of flour were the leading features of the commercial movement of breadstuffs during January.
